Chablis 'Emile Petit' by Jean Marc
Brocard 2002/04 (Burgundy, France)

£27.00

N/A

This wine possesses all the hallmarks of a top quality Chablis, with a four star award to its name, fine minerality, restrained citrus fruit, firm structure and dry finish.

Rosé

Pinot Grigio Rosé Ca Lunghetta
Botter 2004 (Italy)

£12.50

£5.00

A popular rosé which is easy to drink. Dry, crisp, soft texture, moderate strawberry and raspberry fruit followed by a clean refreshing finish.

Domanie Fontanyl Rosé 2004 (French)

£15.00

N/A

A serious rosé. Dry, crisp with aromas of red berries and delicate floral hints combined with fresh fruit flavours on the palate.

Red Wine

House Red

Palandri Estate Solora Shiraz (Australia)

£12.00

£4.00

A full flavoured, smooth drinking red from the Southern Regions of Western Australia. The nose evokes dark cherry and redcurrant, with a hint of white pepper and charry vanilla oak. The rich palate conjures flavours of dark chocolate and blueberry.
